

Logo Samples

A logo is a symbol or design that represents your company. It should be something that is creative and that people can easily remember after only seeing it a couple times. Try not to make your logo too complicated. Usually the simpler the logo, the better it is.

Also, notice how many colors each of these logos uses. Color is extremely important when creating a logo. Think about which colors best represent your company.

TARGET

